ORGANpromotion does not offer any insurance against participants having to withdraw from trips, or against theft and illness. We recommend that participants take out their own travel insurance. In the event of illness or force majeure, participants may claim back any payments made for course and hotel. The 50 Euro deposit will not be refunded. Should the trip not take place, ORGANpromotion will refund the full amount including the deposit. Participants in a trip must accept responsibility for their own actions. The basis for ORGANpromotion's travel offering will be found in the text of the advertisement for the trip. Changes to the advertised programme may be made at short notice.
